

THE BEST IN THE ROOM RARELY GETS HIRED

"I've spent 14 years mastering my craft..."

"I'm clearly the most experienced person here."

"So why does the loud one keep winning the work?"

"Maybe my work just hasn't been seen yet."

THE TRAP

Expertise sits there. Decisions don't wait for it.

People hire who they remember, not who they audit.

SKILL

Earns the right to be hired

MEMORY

Gets you hired in the first place

THE REFRAME

Skill earns trust. Memory earns the call.

Your expertise is invisible until your positioning becomes unforgettable.

THE FOUR LAYERS

How memorable experts get chosen

Sharp category

One thing you own. Not five.

Repeated angle

Same point, different formats, every week.

Visible track record

Proof in public, not buried in folders.

One-line summary

A sentence that travels without you.

THE COMPARISON

Quiet expert vs. memorable expert

SIGNAL	QUIET	MEMORABLE
Bio	Lists titles	Owns category
Content	Random topics	Same angle
Pricing	By the hour	By outcome
Intro	"I help..."	"I'm the X for Y"
Pipeline	Referral hope	Inbound flow

DO THIS WEEK

Become the obvious choice in 3 steps

- 1 Pick one category
Niche down. Cut the rest. Own one shelf.
- 2 Pick one angle
Repeat it for 90 days across formats.
- 3 Show one proof
Publicly. Weekly. With names and numbers.

PRO TIP

Memorability is built by repetition, not by credentials.

@SAMTRABULSI

The expert who positions wins.

Stop waiting for your work to speak for itself. Build the frame people repeat.
