YOUR POSITIONING ISN'T WEAK. IT'S IDENTICAL.

"I post, I show up, I know my stuff. Why does nothing land?"

Maybe I need a cleaner bio.

I help clients grow with clarity, strategy, and results.

So does every coach in my feed.

THE SAMENESS TRAP

You are not invisible. You are replaceable.

The market sees you. It just cannot tell you apart.

IDENTICAL

Same words as everyone

→

DISTINCT

One stance nobody else takes

THE SHIFT

Weak and identical feel the same. They are not.

Weak positioning fails to land. Identical positioning lands, then evaporates. Different is not louder. It is rarer.

4 SHIFTS FROM IDENTICAL TO DISTINCT

How to sound like no one else in your niche

⚔️

Name The Enemy

What belief do you stand against? Soft positioning has no villain.

🚫

Name The Trade-Off

What will you not give clients? A position requires a refusal.

🗣️

Drop The Template Words

Clarity. Growth. Transformation. Elevate. Unlock. Delete all five.

📌

Own One Unusual Opinion

A stance the market debates is a stance the market remembers.

THE MIRROR

Identical or distinct? Check your page.

SIGNAL	IDENTICAL	DISTINCT
Bio	A resume	A stance
Promise	Clarity + growth	A specific fight
Offer	A list of services	A single verdict
Villain	None named	Clearly named
Memory	Forgotten by Friday	Referred by name

3 MOVES TO STOP SOUNDING LIKE EVERYONE

Turn identical positioning into a position you own

1. Open 10 Competitor Bios
   Highlight every word you also use. Those are the words that have to go first.

2. Write One Sentence You'd Argue For
   If it could appear in anyone's bio, it is noise. A position is a line you defend.

3. Name Who You Refuse
   A refusal is what makes a yes feel rare. Without it, every yes feels cheap.

> PRO TIP
> If a competitor could copy and paste your bio, the market already has.
