STOP SAYING "I HELP" IT'S WHY NO ONE BOOKS

The bio template that erased your business

"I help entrepreneurs and high performers achieve their goals through proven coaching strategies."

What do you actually do?

I help people grow.

Cool. Same as everyone else then.

THE SAMENESS TRAP

Generic positioning makes you invisible, not professional.

Buyers can't pick you when you sound like 10,000 others.

THE SHIFT

Positioning is not what you offer. It's what you refuse.

The expert who narrows wins. The one who "helps everyone" works for free forever.

PHRASES THAT ERASE YOU

4 lines killing your positioning right now

"I help entrepreneurs succeed"

Which entrepreneur? At what stage? Facing what problem? Generic targeting reads as zero targeting to the buyer.

"Your trusted partner in growth"

Every coach, agency, and consultant uses this phrase. It signals nothing. It promises nothing. It sells nothing.

"Passionate about helping others"

Buyers do not pay for your passion. They pay for a specific problem getting solved by someone they recognize.

"Results-driven coach since 2015"

Years of experience signal nothing without a sharp position. You can be qualified and forgettable at the same time.

THE MIRROR

Generic bio vs sharp bio. Which one is yours right now?

ELEMENT	GENERIC	SHARP
Target	Entrepreneurs	Stuck at $5k months
Promise	Achieve goals	Stop discounting
Method	Proven process	No content calendar
Refusal	Helps everyone	Won't lower price
Result	Forgotten	Booked out

THE MOVE

Rewrite your bio in 3 sharp steps

1. Delete Every "I Help"
   Open your bio. Strike every line that starts with "I help." That phrase is the camouflage that makes you blend into the crowd.

2. Name The Exact Moment
   Write down the exact moment your buyer is in before they reach you. The frustration. The failed attempt. The thing they tried that did not work.

3. Say What You Refuse
   Add one line about what you reject. The kind of client you turn down, the method you do not use, the promise you refuse to make. Refusal is positioning.

> PRO TIP
> If 100 other coaches could copy your bio without changing a word, it is not a position. It is a placeholder.
