Followers grow. Calendar doesn't.

1. Followers are borrowed attention.
2. A bigger audience does not fix a vague offer.
3. People follow to watch. Buyers need a door.
4. Your bio is a decision point, not a resume.
5. Every post should move one person one inch.
   Pick the move. Name the next step.
6. "When you're ready" books zero calls.
7. Count calls, not views. The verdict is the calendar.

Growth is the input.

Bookings are the truth.
