

LIKES ARE NOT LEADS.

1. Engagement is a mood reading.

Intent is a money reading.

2. A like costs zero.

A DM costs identity.

3. Comments are admiration.

Bookings are belief.

4. "Great post" is not pipeline.

It's applause for a magician with no audience to pay.

5. Reach without intent is a parade, not a business.

6. Stop counting eyes.

Start counting decisions.

7. The right metric is one question:

Did anyone raise their hand to buy?

Until the post asks for intent,

attention is just rent.
